THE EUROPEAN WAR IN BIBLE PROPHECY.

Undreamed of passions have burst forth, devouring the lands that patient hands have beautified and made fertile, and centuries have stocked with art treasures. To the entire world the war has come as a complete surprise because they have not read our book (600 pages—cloth) telling that just such conditions would exist, only to be followed by the still greater devastation of anarchy. The first edition came from the press in 1886.

Of vaster interest and importance is its promise of better things to come for this earth, when the wrath of nations has run its course. Send thirty-four cents in stamps with this coupon to cover postage, to The Temple, No. 26 W. 8th St., New York City, and receive a copy promptly.

Could Do For Herself.

She was a very delightful but a very aged lady—over ninety—and her friends and relatives and even chance acquaintances, drawn by her exquisite personality, all did her homage and, as the saying is, "waited on her" hand and foot."

She accepted it all very graciously but with some inward regret, for to a very old and very afflicted friend she once said, with a quaint poker of lips and brows:

"I am reminded sometimes of the old times:

"Two were known at her nose,
And three were buried at her throat."

Youth & Companion

Scrooging.

"Things were getting too warm for me in that section of the country."

"What was the reason?"

"I was burning up too many of the roads."—Baltimore American.

Never Break.

Greene—Are there any really indestructible toys? Gray—None that I know of, except those that make an infernal noise.—Judge.

The Right Temperament.

"That girl ought to succeed on the stage. She's got the true leading lady temperament."

"How's that?"

"Why, she never interested herself in an amateur play without demanding the star part, and when she couldn't get it, she'd break up the show."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
